

The Indiana Supreme Court Legal History Lecture Series will host a FREE CLE event to celebrate the publication of

The History of INDIANA LAW

Thursday, June 15, 2006
2:45–4:00 p.m.

Indiana Supreme Court Courtroom
(200 W. Washington St., Rm 317)

Followed by light refreshments in the atrium.

PANEL

RANDALL T. SHEPARD, Chief Justice of Indiana

DAVID J. BODENHAMER, Executive Director, The Polis Center at IUPUI

SHEILA SUESS KENNEDY, Associate Professor of Law & Public Policy, IUPUI

SUSAN K. CARPENTER, Public Defender of Indiana

This lecture has been assigned course 94646 for a total of 1.3 hours of CLE.

For more information, contact Dr. Elizabeth Osborn, Assistant to the Chief Justice for Court History & Public Education, 317-232-2550 or eosborn@courts.state.in.us

The History of INDIANA LAW

Edited by David J. Bodenhamer and Hon. Randall T. Shepard

David J. Bodenhamer is a professor of history and the executive director of the Polis Center at Indiana University–Purdue University, Indianapolis. He is the author or editor of six books, including Fair Trial: Rights of the Accused in American History and The Bill of Rights in Modern America: After 200 Years (with James W. Ely Jr.).

Hon. Randall T. Shepard, of Evansville, is one of the most respected jurists in the country. Shepard was appointed to the Supreme Court of Indiana in 1985 and named chief justice in 1987.

OHIO UNIVERSITY PRESS
Series on Law, Society, and Politics in the Midwest
Paul Finkelman, Series Editor

The History of Indiana Law will be available for purchase at the event or can be ordered from:

www.ohio.edu/oupres

Publication of The History of Indiana Law has been made possible by the generous support of the Indiana Bar Foundation.